

Think of a Link!

Think of a person, place, thing, animal, thought, or emotion and write it on the top line. What does that word make you think of? What could it be connected to? Write that on the next line and so on...

What's interesting about these connections? Did anything surprise you? Write about it here or write a story using all of these things!

How are you connected to...?

Imagine how you are connected to each of these and write about it!
