Every aspect of our daily activities can be a part of spiritual practice if done with compassion—and this compact guide offers wisdom from the Buddhist tradition on how eating mindfully can nourish the mind as well as the body.

Karma has become a popular term in the West, often connected with somewhat naive or deterministic ideas of rebirth and reincarnation. It is also often equated with views of morality and guilt. Here Chögyam Trungpa unpacks this intriguing but misunderstood topic.

A translation of the Mahāyānasūtrālāmkāra with Mipham Rinpoche’s extensive commentary.

A meditating Silicon Valley entrepreneur teams up with a young, insightful, and traditionally educated Tibetan Rinpoche. Together they present a path to radical happiness—a sense of well-being that you can access anytime but especially when life is challenging.

One of the most beloved and oft-recited prayers in the Kagyu tradition, this combines a supplication to the Mahamudra lineage with a guide to practice and the stages of the path to enlightenment.

Series
In 1838, Choying Tobden Dorje, a Buddhist yogi-scholar of eastern Tibet, completed a multivolume masterwork that traces the entire path of the Nyingma tradition of Tibetan Buddhism from beginning to end. Written by a lay practitioner for laypeople, it was intended to be accessible, informative, inspirational, and above all, practical. Its twenty-five books, or topical divisions, offer a comprehensive and detailed view of the Buddhist path according to the early translation school of Tibetan Buddhism, spanning the vast range of Buddhist teachings from the initial steps to the highest esoteric teachings of Great Perfection. Choying Tobden Dorje’s magnum opus appears in English here for the first time. The entire text will be released over the coming few years.

The Essential Tantras of Mahāyoga

By Kamalashila and H.H. the Fourteenth Dalai Lama

FEBRUARY 19, 2019

Hardcover | 9781559394369

Foundations of the Buddhist Path is a survey of the scope of Tobden Djore’s work that set the cornerstones for all subsequent Buddhist practice: what constitutes proper spiritual apprenticeship; how to receive the teachings; how to make the best use of this life; and how to motivate ourselves to generate effort on the spiritual path.

An overview of the philosophical systems of India and Tibet according to Longchen Rabjam and Orgyan Lingpa. It looks at Vaibhāṣika and Sautrāntika, Yogacara and Madhyamaka, the inner and outer tantras, and non-Buddhist systems of thought with an emphasis on the three classes of the Great Perfection.

This work outlines the esoteric practice of tantra according to the Nyingma system, and explains the result of the tantric path: enlightenment itself.

Note: Restricted text, only available from Shambhala.com. Designed to be a companion for dedicated practitioners who receive direct instructions from a qualified teacher.

This is a two-volume set addressing the first of the three classes of inner tantra. It presents the entire text of the Guhyagarbha Tantra in Tibetan and English, together with the interlinear sections of one of its most important commentaries, Dispelling the Darkness of the Ten Directions, by Longchen Rabjam and Choying Tobden Dorje’s rewriting of Candragomin’s inspirational Extensive Commentary on the Sublime Litany of the Names of Manjushri.

The Treasury of Precious Instructions

The Treasury of Precious Instructions or Dam-ngak Rinpoché Dzö is one of Jamgön Kongtrul’s Five Treasuries, his major collections of writing. It is considered one of the most important contributions to Tibetan literature and a further statement of Jamgön Kongtrul’s non-sectarian values. This Treasury contains the collected transmissions and esoteric instructions of the eight principal practice lineages of Tibetan Buddhism, which trace their lineages back to India. These eight lineages of accomplishment (one model of classifying the practice traditions of Tibet) are encompassed in 18 volumes. This collection was compiled in roughly chronological order as the traditions developed. Below are the first two releases, with more on the way.

By Jamgön Kongtrul Lodrö Tayé,
Translated by Sarah Harding

NOVEMBER 21, 2017
Paperback | 9781611803723

The Zhije volume from The Treasury of Precious Instructions in which Kongtrul presents a diverse corpus of texts from the Zhije tradition that trace especially to the South Indian master Dampa Sangye (d. 1117), whose teachings are also celebrated in the Chöd (Severance) tradition.

The Treasury of Precious Instructions, by one of Tibet’s greatest Buddhist masters, is a shining jewel of Tibetan literature, presenting essential teachings from the entire spectrum of practice lineages that existed in Tibet. In its eighteen volumes, Kongtrul brings together some of the most important texts on key topics of Buddhist thought and practice as well as authoring significant new sections of his own.
